

Drew McArthur

Tuesday, 08 March 2005

Drew McArthur is Vice President - Corporate Affairs and Compliance Officer for TELUS. With over 30 years experience in the telecommunications industry, Drew has been involved in many aspects of the business, including network operations, customer service and marketing. Drew was appointed as Privacy Officer in 2000 and is the individual at TELUS accountable for its compliance with PIPEDA and TELUS' privacy policies. With several years of practical experience in dealing with customer and employee privacy issues, Drew is well-positioned to provide insights into the challenge of balancing business requirements with the obligation to protect privacy and security in an increasingly complex global marketplace.